Acknowledgments

As an author, I am grateful to Belinda Jeffrey, Dr Andy Barrie and Anna Barrie for their collaboration with me in compiling the training materials that motivated writing this book. I appreciate the knowledge and writing skills that Dr Louise Porter brought to the task and am indebted to Anna Ng for her fine illustrations.

As a practitioner, I am grateful for the training I have received from Dr Michael Artmann, Dr Andy Barrie, Anna Barrie, Heiner Lotze, Helen Loveday and Olaf GÜNta. I appreciate the support of the community of bioresonance practitioners within Australia and beyond, particularly Maria Kern and Donne Bloemhard. I especially appreciate the theoretical and practical insights of my colleagues Steve Grace and Kate Smith.

Most of all, I thank my family for their loving encouragement as I pursued my healing journey and ultimately recorded my learnings here.

Finally, I am grateful to my many clients for all that they have taught me and for their persistence and unconquerable spirit when challenged to maintain their health.

Marcia Pitman, R.N.
